

JUMPED OVERBOARD INTO LAKE MICHIGAN

Suicide of Max. Pfennig in Mid-Lake Last Night.

WAS A WELL KNOWN GERMAN CITIZEN OF JANESVILLE.

News of the Alleged Suicide Received Here from Milwaukee This Morning, and Was a Great Surprise—Mr. Pfennig Was on a Visit to Ludington, Mich., and There Was No Indication or Known Reason Why He Should Resort to So Desperate an Act.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—The officers of the F. & P. M. steamer No. 3 arrived in port from Ludington, Mich., yesterday afternoon, reported that a passenger, Max Pfennig, whose home was in Janesville, jumped overboard and drowned about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Pfennig, who was about 60 years of age, went to Ludington two weeks ago and was on his way home. He was seen by one of the crew, dressed and walking on the deck early yesterday morning, but shortly after he disappeared, though no one saw him jump overboard. His clothing and effects are now at the local F. & P. M. office.

News of the alleged suicide reached Janesville this morning in a message from Milwaukee. Surprise was expressed on all sides that so prominent a man as Mr. Pfennig should take his life.

Chief of Police Hogan received a message from Milwaukee notifying him of the suicide.

Mr. Pfennig's son and daughter at a late hour this afternoon had received no official notice of their father's death.

Was Visiting in Ludington. Miss Pfennig stated that several days ago her father left for Ludington, Mich., intending to be gone a few days. Yesterday she received a letter from her father dated Nov. 27 and written from Ludington. In this letter Mr. Pfennig referred to nothing that would indicate that he intended taking his own life. He stated that he intended to be home Tuesday evening. That was last night. But he has not yet put in his appearance in Janesville.

Members and intimate friends of the family when seen today expressed surprise at the report of the suicide. Many allege that if Mr. Pfennig's body is found in Lake Michigan it will be found that his death has been the result of accidental drowning. They said that undoubtedly he accidentally fell overboard while walking too near the boat's railing.

A close friend of the family stated today:

"I would not be in the least surprised if Mr. Pfennig's body is found in Lake Michigan and the report of his suicide is true. When he left Janesville a few days ago he informed me that he had too much to worry him here in this world. He said he intended soon to put a stop to all his troubles. Several times he talked of committing suicide."

Several messages were forwarded to Milwaukee today and every effort is being made to ferret out the mystery. An effort will be made to patrol the shore south of Milwaukee in the hopes of locating the body in case it is washed ashore. The remains will be brought here for burial if found.

Was Born in Prussia, Germany. Sixty three years ago Mr. Pfennig was born in Prussia, Germany. He grew to manhood in his native land and on reaching military age he entered the German army where he served his full time as demanded by the laws of Germany. His service in the army was marked by promotion as he was regarded as an ideal soldier, well versed in all army tactics.

On leaving the army he was under-lieutenant, a rank corresponding with captain in our army and to which all German soldiers aspire.

He was married in Germany but after a few years death entered his home and took his wife. A few years later Mr. Pfennig again married and this time he and his wife were separated by divorce. He again married and with this wife he came to America settling in Janesville about the year 1871.

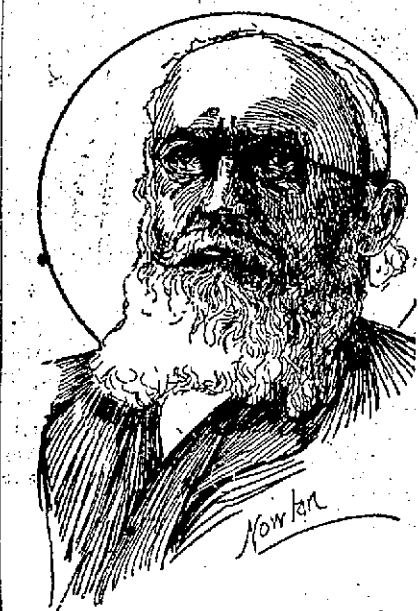

On coming to Janesville Mr. Pfennig assumed the management of the American House on East Milwaukee street. For several years he conducted this hotel on a paying basis and soon made for it a first class reputation as a German boarding house. From this hotel Mr. Pfennig went into the saloon business on North Academy street where he conducted an orderly and well kept place.

From the saloon business he engaged in the real estate, fire insurance and loan business, having an office in the Hayes Bros. block, corner Milwaukee and Franklin streets. He also acted as local agent for several steamship lines. Mr. Pfennig was a prominent politician, placing his political faith with the republican party who elected him to a term as coroner in Janesville. His political influence among the Germans was felt on all sides.

Member of a Noble Family. While a resident of Germany Mr. Pfennig was a member of a noble family and it is said that his real name was not Pfennig but Max Von Schulenburg. Family troubles caused him to change his name when he took his departure for America.

A few years ago Mr. Pfennig was taken ill in this city which sickness it is said, affected his mind. He also had serious trouble with his eyesight which caused him to worry. Two years ago his wife died at their North Bluff street home in this city. He constantly worried over her death.

During the past few weeks Mr. Pfennig frequently made the remark to local friends that he worried over certain business transactions that he said he feared in time would drive him to suicide.

A son and a daughter, residents of Janesville, are left to mourn his loss. They are William M. Pfennig and Miss Irngard Pfennig. Max Pfennig resided at 55 North Bluff street.

BROKE BOTH HIS LEGS

Serious Accident to Charles Caldwell in the Barrett Mill at Beloit.

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 29.—[Special.]—Mr. Charles Caldwell, who succeeded the late Albert Tool as millwright at the Barrett mill, was caught in a rag carrier yesterday afternoon and had both legs broken. Caldwell was making repairs on the carrier when the machine started up and he was drawn under the slats with terrific force.

He was taken to the Emergency hospital where he was attended by Drs. Nye, Bennett, McCabe and Melon. It is a sad accident as Mr. Caldwell has a family of eleven children who need his care. He resides on Strong avenue.

MARINES TAKE VIGAN

Both Gen. Otis and Admiral Watson Make a Report on the Captures.

Washington, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—Gen. Otis and Admiral Watson reported this morning on the capture of Vigan. The place was taken by the marines, who were welcomed by the inhabitants. Watson says that all but four of the Urdaneta crew, recently captured by the rebels, were killed. He also says that Lieut. Gilmore and seven companions are 25 miles from Vigan. They are reported well.

MAY READ BIBLE IN SCHOOL

Question Settled by Superintendent Jackson of Nebraska

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 29.—State Superintendent Jackson today decided that the Bible may be read in the public schools. The matter was laid before him in a case from Gage county, where one family in a district wanted the teacher enjoined from using the book, although all others favored it. In his decision Mr. Jackson says: "There seems to be nothing in the laws of Nebraska that would prevent the simple reading of the Bible in our public schools. I am of the opinion that in this enlightened age and Christian land the public school teacher ought not to be deprived of reading, without written or oral comment, the bible or of repeating the Lord's prayer."

PECK LEADS ROOTERS

Ex-Governor Will Head Badger Contingent at Football Game in Chicago Tomorrow.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 29.—The mass meeting of students last night was the largest in the history of the University of Wisconsin. The purpose of the meeting was to organize systematic rooting for the Thanksgiving day game with Michigan and to cheer the "Varsity" players who will leave for Chicago tomorrow morning.

The speaker of the evening was James G. Monahan. Others to tell why Wisconsin was going to win were Evan A. Evans, ex-president of the Athletic association, John R. Richards, A. L. Sanborn and others. Phil King said that

LOSS WILL REACH AT LEAST $5,000,000

Most Disastrous Fire in the History of Philadelphia—Great Department Store and Dry Goods Store Burn Down—Lippincott's Publishing Company an Entire Loss—Plates of American Edition of Encyclopedia Britannica Lost Are Valued at $3,000,000 Alone.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of this city broke out this morning in the department store of Partridge & Richardson, which, with the establishment of Strawbridge & Clothier's dry goods store, Lippincott's Publishing Co., and Bailey's notion house was destroyed. Several other establishments were badly damaged.

The loss is estimated at two million.

Two firemen were badly hurt by falling from a window.

In addition to Lippincott's general loss he reports the destruction of the plates of the American edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica which are valued at $3,000,000.

This brings the total loss up to five million dollars.

so far as the men were concerned they were all in good shape. Members of the team expressed their determination to win and Capt. O'Dea said if the students would do the rooting the team would do its share toward winning.

In answer to the request of the management for George W. Peck to act as chief of the rooters, the former governor has written:

"All right. We'll yell, kick or fight for you Indians."

Both Teams in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The Wisconsin and Michigan teams, both arrived here at noon today. At least 1,000 rooters will come from the Badger state tomorrow and the same number from Michigan. Both teams and their backers feel confident of victory and the hardest contested football battle of the year is expected. The weather promises are fine.

NEGROES STILL HAVE BALLOT

Georgia Legislature Kills the Election Franchise Bill.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 29.—The Georgia House of Representatives yesterday refused to disfranchise the negroes of this state by a vote of 137 to 3. Only one member spoke for the bill, its author, T. W. Hardwick.

The measure provided that no person unable to read, write and understand any paragraph of the state constitution could vote with the exception of those who had right of franchise Jan. 1, 1867, and previous thereto and their lineal descendants.

TO FIX A GOLD STANDARD BASIS

Republican Congressional Caucus Committee Makes Reform Bill Public.

IN LINE WITH PLEDGES

The Central Idea is to Secure the Stability of the National Currency.

Measure Provides for Safety of the Reserve by Keeping It at One-Fourth Amount of Greenbacks and Treasury Notes—The Endless Chain System Broken by Holding Paper Money for Which Gold is Paid Out—Plan Accords with Administration

Washington, Nov. 29.—After spending many months in its preparation, the republican caucus committee last night made public the financial bill which it will ask congress to pass. Under it, if it becomes a law, gold is to be the standard of value and the basis of the entire money system of the United States. United States bonds are to be payable in gold, and all obligations, public and both houses of congress and the president.

Everything else in the bill is considered by its framers as of secondary importance to an unequivocal gold standard.

Will Pass the House Easy.

The bill will be adopted by the caucus next Saturday night or at an adjourned meeting a day or two later, and will pass the House practically without an amendment. It will be altered somewhat but not materially, in the Senate.

There is a proposition in the Upper House for a systematic refunding of the national debt in connection with the establishment of the gold standard and this is likely to be accepted by the House. No attempt has been made to harmonize the views of Senate and House on the currency question for the simple reason that so far as the republicans are concerned, there is practically no division of opinion. The general principles of the House bill will be adopted by the Senate, with such amendments and modifications only as seem likely to perfect the scheme. It is the purpose of the leaders to put the gold standard into the statute law, without equivocation for the express purpose of going before the people on this issue.

HARPER BROS. FAILURE

Indebtedness Amounts to Over $3,500,000—Trust Company in Charge by Agreement.

New York, Nov. 29.—After an uninterrupted career of eighty-two years the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. is compelled to acknowledge that it is unable to meet its maturing obligations. With the consent of its principal creditor, J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., the control of the business of the corporation is now vested in the State Trust company, as trustee, under a mortgage for $3,500,000, held by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., since Nov. 16, 1896.

In addition to the mortgage for $3,500,000, which is in default, the house of Harper & Bros. has outstanding unsecured liabilities of $2,000,000. The State Trust company has delegated to Col. George B. M. Harvey, who was recently elected president of Harper & Bros., the management of the business, as agent of the trustee. Col. Harvey is quoted as saying that the assets are in excess of the liabilities, but these assets are of such a character as to be unavailable for immediate cash requirements. On behalf of Harper & Bros. it was announced that the new move is for the purpose of a reorganization upon a new financial basis. Upon this basis, it is stated, the present unsecured claims can be assured to the creditors.

FIGHT RAILWAY RATES

Badger Cheese Makers and Chair Makers Are Also Out for Reduced Tariffs.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—Milwaukee commission men, having met with some success in an appeal to the state railroad commissioner for a revision of the rates of grain to Milwaukee, the cheesemakers and chair manufacturers have determined to find out whether they can be overcharged or not. The latter claim there has been discrimination, and for the purpose of mutual interest some of the leading manufacturers of this and adjoining states met yesterday in this city. One of the latter, George A. Buckstaff of Oshkosh, said: "Our purpose is to convince the railroads that they are charging us too high rates for the transportation of certain classes of our manufactured product. We proposed to map out a plan by which pressure will be brought to bear upon the railroad managers to obtain a reduction. We think the order of last summer is unjust to chair manufacturers in the northwest, and that it discriminates in the interest of manufacturers of cheap chairs through the south. The increase was a gross injustice to Wisconsin manufacturers."

DEPOSED AS ASSIGNEE

Supreme Court Takes a Hand in Plankinton Bank Failure Case.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—The supreme court of the state has granted the writ of mandamus asked by the creditors of the Plankinton Bank and Capt. Irving M. Bean has been deposed as assignee of the defunct bank. Judge Johnson is directed to make an investigation and if he finds that the majority of the creditors want Henry Horman for assignee, he is to appoint him.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—The forecast for Wisconsin is as follows:

Fair tonight and Thursday.

POWER FROM OCEAN TIDES

Will Utilize the Ocean to Operate an Electric Plant.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 29.—Fred Peters and E. A. Fager, inventors, have applied for powers to utilize the tides in the rapidly running narrows leading to Vancouver harbor. After the manner of Belamy's creation the ebb and flow of the tides will be used to run big electric power plants to transmit power to the city and adjoining park.

BIG BATTLE IS FOUGHT

British and Boer Forces Meet in a Bloody Conflict on Modder River.

FIGHT IS INDECISIVE

Gen. Methuen Claims That He Drove the Enemy From Their Position.

HE NEGLECTS TO NOTE THAT HE MADE ANY ADVANCE.

British Commanding General Reports

That It Was One of the Hardest and Most Trying Battles in the Annals of the English Army—Only a Small Party of the Red Coats Succeeded in Getting a Foothold on the Boer Side of the River.

London, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram.]—A great battle has been fought between the Boers and Gen. Methuen's forces on the Modder river at Spionkop. The result is reported as indecisive.

Supreme Trial of Strength

London, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram.]—A supreme trial of strength between the Boers and British in western Cape Colony occurred yesterday when Gen. Methuen's column, advancing to relieve Kimberley, was opposed by the Boer main force at the Modder river, twenty-five miles south of Kimberley. Gen. Methuen's report says:

"The action commenced with artillery, mounted infantry and the Ninth brigade on the left. I attacked the enemy with a widely extended formation, supported by artillery. I found myself in front of the whole Boer force, comprising eight thousand men, with two large guns, four Krupp's and other pieces. The naval brigade rendered great assistance from the railway."

"After desperate hard fighting, lasting ten hours, my men, without food, water, and under the burning sun, made the enemy quit their position. General Pole-Carew succeeded in getting a small party across the river, assisted gallantly by three hundred sappers. All the men behaved splendidly. It was one of the most trying and hardest fights in the annals of the British army."

Gen. Methuen reports that he was unable to flank the enemy on account of the river. He also makes special notice of the efficiency of the artillery. The list of casualties have not yet been received.

It appears that the British, excepting a small party still south of the river, have not made any advance yet, which makes the fight indecisive.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN LONDON

Trying Hard to Make Out a Big British Victory.

London, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram.]—Gen. Methuen's report of the battle at Modder river causes great excitement here. The engagement is recognized as the most important so far of the war and the public and the penny papers are trying hard to make it out a tremendous British victory. The British casualty list will doubtless be appalling. Anxiety to see the list has brought crowds to the war department, but nothing of the losses can be learned.

Has Ladysmith Fallen?

A dispatch from The Hague says a family in Rotterdam received a dispatch from a son in the Transvaal saying: "Am all right," which was a pre-arranged code for "Ladysmith has fallen."

Boer Sharpshooters Active.

Cape Town, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram.]—It is reported that Gen. Methuen's force was constantly harassed by sharpshooters. The British complain that the Boers shoot at their stretcher-bearers. Only two officers of the naval brigade remain alive.

British Loss at Belmont.

London, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram.]—The war office publishes a revised list of casualties during the Belmont fight. The British lost four officers killed, twenty-two wounded and forty-four men killed and 225 wounded. Sortie From Kimberley.

Pretoria, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—Delayed—The British made a sortie from Kimberley on Saturday. The Boers lost nine killed and seventeen wounded. Two dead Britons were found. The Orange Free State troops

PLENTY OF POULTRY IN LOCAL MARKET

NO CHICKEN FAMINE EXISTS IN ROCK COUNTY.

Shipment of Several Thousand Chickens from Janesville to New York a Few Weeks Ago Has Not Affected the Thanksgiving Market—Turkeys Are Also Plentiful.

In spite of the shipment of several thousand chickens, ducks and turkeys from Janesville to New York a few weeks ago, the local market is now well stocked for Thanksgiving.

From all portions of Rock county dressed poultry, turkeys and ducks have been brought to the local dealers during the past two days.

This is the season when the stately turkey bows his neck to the headman's ax and takes his place in long rows of his fellow bipeds on the hooks and counters of the markets to be taken home by the people to grace the festive board on the nation's holiday.

Never before were there so many turkeys in the markets. Never were there better prospects for their sale and consumption. The dealers in Janesville expect the largest trade ever known. The prices are reasonable and the finest birds can be secured for 14 cents per pound. With everyone at work and good wages paid there need not be a family without a fat, steaming bird on its table on this day.

The farmers had good luck with their flocks the past season and are sending the fowls to market in large quantities and of a high grade. Janesville cannot take care of all that are offered and barrels and boxes of the dressed product are going to the Chicago market every day now and will probably do so until the holidays.

Chickens are also plenty although not so markedly as the larger birds and will sell at from 10 to 12 cents. Ducks are not a favorite and so are bought sparingly. There is not enough flesh on them to warrant the frugally minded in using them and a change has been seen in the demand for the past two years. Formerly all those offered were bought with avidity, but since the demand from the consumer has fallen off this has been changed.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

NORTH JOHNSTOWN.

North Johnstown, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Thomas Rice died Saturday morning, Nov. 25, at 5 o'clock, after an illness of four months of liver trouble. She was born in North Pembroke, Genesee county, New York, August 15, 1837, being sixty-two years, three months and ten days old at the time of her death. At the age of sixteen years she came to Johnstown, Wis., and has ever since resided in this place. She was married to Thomas E. Rice, Jan. 29, 1855. Five sons and one daughter were born to them, the daughter dying in infancy. Funeral services were held at the house Monday at 11 o'clock, Rev. A. Longfield officiating. Favor of Present System . . . 2

Additional interviews with citizens on the matter of a change in the police department are as follows:
Alderman E. F. Carpenter—"To establish a call system and have extra police officers would be going into luxuries. This city is putting on too many metropolitan airs now. The electric lights, which are a luxury, are costing nearly twice as much as the water-works which are a necessity. Chicago has over 1500 police officers still holdups take place every day in the very heart of the city. Tax per centage is now too high here in Janesville."

Charles B. Conrad—"I do not think an increase in the police force in Janesville is necessary. Taxes are high among men."

Dr. Q. O. Sutherland—"For ten years I have advocated a plan of establishing a place in the central part of the city where an officer could be found. As to adding more officers I don't know any thing about that part of the business."
C. A. E. Bidham—"I think the plan a good one and so I informed Chief Hogan. We need police headquarters."
Charles A. Potter—"This is about the only city in the United States where they have so small a police force. The extra tax would be small. We need a place where an officer can be found."

J. L. Mahoney—"I think the idea is all right if the city could stand the extra expense. It would mean two extra men."

H. M. Weaver—"The police system here is now poorly managed. There should be some place where the public can be sure of finding an officer."
H. G. Carter—"Any man who would 'kick' on providing a place where an officer can be found doesn't know much about it."

Cheap Rates to Chicago.

LEAF COMPETITION MAKES BRISK PRICES

THE EASTERN TOBACCO BUYERS ARE ARRIVING.

Now in Rock County Directing the Movements of Their Buyers—All Are Paying Good Prices and Farmers Are Happy—Tobacco Growers Realize $300,000 More This Year

There has been some lively work done in the tobacco sections during the past week and buying of the '99 crop has been both fast and furious at times. The competition has been so brisk that prices are crowded up a notch or so until growers holding anything like choice selections have been able to secure 8 cents, or above, in a few cases. A majority of the late sales have been made at about 7 cents, and enormous quantities are being contracted for at these figures, exceeding several thousand acres during the week.

It is quite generally conceded that considerably more than half the crop has now been sold and the indications are good that the most of the rest will be taken before the rush is over. The growers are realizing fully a cent more a pound than the average price of the '98 crop, which will mean at least $300,000 more to the tobacco growers of this state than last year.

A few warehouses have already started in to handle the new crop, though deliveries will not become general for a month or so yet. Large quantities of old stock is being forwarded out of storage now, about fifty carloads having gone out of the station during the week. A full train load of decorated cars was sent from Edgerton Sunday morning containing tobacco for the American tobacco company, making one of the largest shipments ever sent out of the market. Many tobacco men have arrived in the state to direct the movements of their buyers since the recent scramble began and the growing districts are being most thoroughly canvassed.

Returns More Indictments.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 29.—The grand jury made short work of the charges of blackmail preferred against certain legislators who had in hand the anti-trust bill last winter. The investigation of this charge was not begun until late Monday afternoon. Only three witnesses were sworn and the investigation was completed early yesterday. The result was the return of two indictments. The court ordered the serving of the warrants, but there is reason for believing that both indictments are directed against the same person.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

That rarely novel comedy, "A Milk White Flag" is one of the coming attractions and it goes without saying that it will duplicate its popularity of former seasons. There is a swing and go about the performance that keeps an audience continually interested, and the special features have been changed and added to, so that this season's entertainment is practically new. There is a plethora of catchy frolicsome music and it is distributed so thoroughly through the three acts that at times one might imagine they were witnessing the performance of a comic opera. There are no moments that hang heavily in "A Milk White Flag," all is animation and wondrous quick action from start to finish. It appears at the Myers opera house on Monday evening, Dec. 4.

At the Myers Grand, Thursday, Dec. 7, Chas. Pusey, Bert St. John and a finely poised fun company will be seen in the third and best edition of that sparkling farce comedy of complications, seasoned with satiable vaudeville features, entitled "Who Is Who."

The lively farce, "Brown's in Town," comes to the Myers Grand next Tuesday, Dec. 5, where the audience will surely laugh over the string of complications which are said to furnish endless fun through the three acts. The author has done some clever work as a farceur in this play, both in ingenious arrangement and abundance of farcical incidents, with catchy songs, bright music and also in the crisp and buoyant humor of the dialogue.

At the Myers Grand Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee the Cinematograph company will delight the lovers of moving pictures.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand good medicine. For sale by Smith's Pharmacy next to Post office. Kodak agents.

Story of the Trip of the Transport Manauase.

KEPT AFLOAT BY BAILING.

Vessel Arrives at Manila with Several Feet of Water in the Hold, and the Men Exhausted—Splendid Behavior of the Soldiers.

Manila, Nov. 29.—The transport Manauase, with Lieut. Col. Webb Hayes and three companies of the Thirty-first infantry on board, has arrived here. She narrowly escaped disaster. The officers and soldiers were for twelve days bailing with buckets. The steamer was unseaworthy, undermanned and short of provisions. Her engines broke down and she rolled three days in a typhoon.

When the Manauase anchored in the bay, thirty-three days from San Francisco, there was several feet of water in the hold, and 400 grimy, greasy, hungry, exhausted soldiers and sailors had been bailing water since Nov. 17, night and day. First Assistant Engineer Dunleavy was under arrest, and, according to Col. Webb Hayes' official report, the chief engineer would also have been under arrest if there had been any one to replace him.

The colonel's report also declares that the captain of the vessel told him that the only thing which brought them through was the fact that the men were greenhorns, and failed to realize their danger, while experienced seamen would have deserted the ship and taken to the boats in midocean.

The Manauase is a chartered ship flying the British flag. It belongs to a firm of which Senator Perkins of San Francisco is alleged to be a junior member. The officers say the firm bought the boat for $45,000, and they claim efforts were made to sell it to the government for $150,000. It started from San Francisco accompanied by the transport Pekin, which carried the remainder of the regiment, and encountered heavy seas to Honolulu, without accident.

After starting it developed that the Manauase was undermanned, and soldiers had to be detailed to act as firemen, coal-passers and waiters and to do other work. Before reaching Honolulu the crew concluded that the ship was not safe and the majority agreed to desert. Though they were closely watched, many of the crew succeeded in getting away, and the Manauase left Honolulu with less than half the crew. The captain of the transport Nov. 17 told Col. Hayes that the vessel had sprung a leak and an investigation resulted in finding several feet of water in the hold. The steam pumps were tried, but failed to work, and there were no hand pumps on board. However, forty-six buckets were found, others were improvised, and the soldiers not employed in working the ship were organized into five shifts, and, stripped and forming lines, they began bailing, the officers working with the men, passing the buckets, which were sent up to the deck by a windlass. The longest time a shift could stand was two hours, and often the period was not longer than half an hour. The bailing continued until the ship anchored here.

The same day the leak was discovered the machinery collapsed and the electric-lighting plant and evaporating, distilling and refrigerating apparatus failed to work. There were no lamps and the few candles found were exhausted after a few days. The water rose rapidly and the bailing force was doubled. The buckets were gradually smashed, and barrels and boxes were substituted for them, the men working in darkness, planks and pieces of iron shafting being violently washed among them. The firemen could feed the fires only by being lifted on the shoulders of the other men, through water waist deep.

The typhoon lasted two days and a half, and in the midst of it the engines stopped. The officers then held a council and found that there were 420 persons on board, with lifeboat accommodations for 213. In the meantime the men below, ignorant of their extreme peril, were passing buckets and singling, "What the H—! Do We Care," while the ship rolled helpless on the ocean, with hatches closed.

The heat was intense until the typhoon passed, and then the Pekin, which had retraced its course about seventy miles, came alongside the Manauase, which was rolling so heavily that the soldiers in the hold could at each roll see the Pekin through the hatches overhead.

Col. James S. Pettit, commander of the Thirty-first volunteer regiment, ordered the Manauase to proceed to Guam and await relief, but the captain of the Manauase demurred, the officers say, because the government was renting the ship for $500 a day. Throughout the remainder of the voyage the engines of the Manauase failed frequently, and the ship would roll for a few hours while the engines were repairing. Then the steamer would proceed again for a few hours. The meat and vegetables rotted because of the failure of the refrigerators, and were thrown overboard. After the storm the water supplied to the ship at Honolulu had to be used for the boilers, and there was little or none for drinking. In fact, it is asserted that during the last week of the voyage the men lived almost entirely on whisky, beer and hardtack.

The officers and soldiers were utterly exhausted when they reached Manila. The officers say that the behavior of the troops was beyond praise. For days they worked in the dark, suffocating hold, with water sometimes up to their shoulders and planks washing about in a manner dangerous to life and limb. The officers took the lead in bailing and encouraged the men.

The regiment will proceed to Zamboanga on the Pekin to garrison several points on the island of Mindanao.

Col. Bell Scatters Insurgents.
Manila, Nov. 29.—Col. Bell, who has been in pursuit of the insurgent troops under Gen. Alejandrino, has scattered the entire rebel force. The rebels were entrenched strongly on a mountain. All their artillery and ammunition was captured. This defeat scatters the last remaining organized portion of Aguinaldo's army.

Gen. Young was at San Ildefonso, three miles from Vigan, in the province of Ilocos Sur, yesterday. He is hustling north along the coast, apparently without satisfactory evidence of Aguinaldo's whereabouts.

Bluejackets from the Oregon and one company of infantry are at Vigan. It is reported that the Spanish and American prisoners were removed from Vigan to Bangued. A battalion of the Thirty-third volunteer infantry is going to Vigan.

Our troops are scattered widely in all directions, and it is said at headquarters that it is not definitely known where they are all located.

When Mangatarem was taken five cannon with 10,000 rounds of Maxim gun ammunition and twelve stands of rifles, with several thousand rounds of cartridges, were captured.

The railroad is being rapidly repaired. Wherever the Americans have occupied towns the natives have immediately gone to work harvesting their rice.

Army Mules Die at Sea.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 29.—With a cargo of dying horses and mules and fifty-five empty stalls, the United States transport Victoria returned to port late Monday, having been forced by an unprecedented stress of weather off Cape Flattery to turn back from her voyage to the Philippines. Of the 410 horses and mules carried by the Victoria, taken on board Nov. 23, fifty-five were literally pounded to death against the sides of their stalls in the storm, and the remaining animals are so badly bruised that the officials believe that many cannot be saved.

Gov. Pingree's Libel Suit.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 29.—Libel suits amounting to $450,000 are about to be begun against the Detroit Free Press by Gov. Pingree and several others. Gov. Pingree claims $250,000, Assistant Corporation Counsel C. D. Joslyn $100,000, and Assistant Corporation Counsel Eli R. Sutton $100,000. Speaking editorially, the Free Press will say that until the complainants have recited their grievances in court, which they have not done as yet, detailed reply is impossible.

Troops Only if Necessary.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A sensational story is afloat that President McKinley had promised to send federal troops to Kentucky in event of a conflict over the election. This is pronounced untrue, and troops will only be sent should trouble become so serious that the state authorities cannot cope with it.

Kills His Wife and Himself.

Murphysboro, Ill., Nov. 29.—The dead bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coad were found in the dining-room of their house on South Thirteenth street Tuesday. The verdict in the coroner's inquest affirms that the shots which took the lives of the couple were fired by Mr. Coad.

Democratic Caucus Is Called.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Congressman J. D. Richardson of Tennessee authorized the statement that the democratic caucus to select candidates for speaker and other officers of the next house will be held at 1 o'clock next Saturday afternoon.

WHERE TWO WOMEN LIVED.

Place Had No Attractions for Other Members of Sex.

Capt. McKenzie of Philadelphia has encountered in his maritime wanderings a place where only two women have ever lived. Lying at pier No. 13, Port Richmond, Philadelphia, discharging her cargo of 150 tons of chrome ore, is the trim little Halifax schooner Satellite, commanded by Capt. McKenzie, a man who has experienced many thrilling adventures while navigating the Newfoundland coast, whence this vessel came with her cargo. The Satellite came from a settlement in Newfoundland known as Bluff Head, situated thirty miles east southeast from Port au Port, and a place where but two women ever were known to live. Capt. McKenzie says that the chrome ore mines were discovered only three years ago. They are now worked by British and American capitalists. The ore on board the Satellite is valued in its crude state in excess of $30 a ton, and is the richest grade which ever has been brought into Philadelphia, owing to the limited facilities for vessels reaching the place, the largest cargo that has ever been shipped is 300 tons and at that time the vessel was seven weeks loading. The mines from which this ore is taken are situated on the tops of cliffs rising 500 feet above the level of the sea, and Capt. McKenzie had to work his vessel in and anchor her under these cliffs on a shoal area containing six fathoms of water. The method of loading is primitive, the ore being conveyed down the mountain side in small wagons drawn by powerful horses. From the shore it is brought out in boats. Capt. McKenzie's last visit to Philadelphia was twenty-three years ago. "At that time," said the old skipper yesterday, "you would not see two steamers from the time you entered the Delaware capes till you passed to sea again. Now sailing vessels in this trade have become almost extinct."

American Soldiers Praised.

The behavior of the American soldiers in the far east has attracted attention in all parts of the world. So recently as just before the outbreak of the Transvaal war the Daily Mail of Grahamstown, Cape Colony, in an appreciative editorial on "The American Troops in Manila," said: "One lesson taught by the struggle in the Philippine archipelago is the amazing fortitude of the American troops. Practically every man in the volunteer forces has been under fire almost continuously since Feb. 4, and in addition to constant fighting has never had a moment's freedom from anxiety as to possible maneuvers of skulking, wily foes, who know every inch of the country and know how to take advantage of its potentialities. The lines have been so long that it has been necessary to keep every regiment to the front. The regulars have had almost the same experience but not quite so much of it. If the campaign has demonstrated nothing else it has shown the marvelous staying powers of Uncle Sam's troops suddenly transferred to the tropics."

Fusionists Won Both Places.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 29.—The completion of the official canvass of the state's vote shows that both the newly elected regents of the University of Nebraska are fusionists. William B. Ely, republican, who ran ahead of his ticket and was thought to have won, is beaten by about 1,800 votes.

Mr. Holcomb's exact plurality is 15,107.

Will Go to New York.

New York, Nov. 29.—United States Senator Addison G. Foster of Washington said last night that in his opinion the republican national convention next year would accord the vice-presidential nomination to the choice of New York state. "I don't think there is a doubt of it," he added.

TAKES A HIGH PLACE

Stands Well in the Estimation of the People.

Attention is Naturally Excited When Anything is Praised by People Whom We Know.

A thing that stands high in the estimation of the public, and which is especially recommended by Janesville people; naturally excites our attention more than if our own people did not praise the article. Such a thing is going on right here in this city every day. People are praising Morrow's Kid-ne-oids because they cure. There is no deception, no humbug, they do positively cure, and we furnish the evidence.

Mrs. James Close, 8 North street, says:—"I have been troubled with kidney and liver complaint and constipation for a long time. I had severe pains across the small of my back in the region of my kidneys. I was so nervous I could not sleep. My liver was torpid and I suffered from indigestion and had such distressing pains in my stomach. I used different kinds of kidney remedies but did not experience much relief, until I commenced to take Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and Liver-ne-oids. These grand remedies relieved me of all my former troubles."

Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are not pills, but yellow tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box at all drug stores and at The People's Drug Store.

Monkeys Hard to Teach.

An experienced animal trainer says: "As a rule monkeys are readily trained, but occasionally there is one, as in the human species, who is a dunce and won't learn anything, is positively stupid, and refuses persistently to become educated. The trouble in teaching monkeys is largely that they are mischievous. They try to overdo things and do things which are not wanted of them; so that in order to make them perform as desired steady drilling is necessary, although they grasp an idea quickly. The only two species of animals which can be taught by precept and example are the chimpanzee and the orang-outang. They are imitators, and to instruct them in doing a thing it is only necessary for the trainer to do it first himself and then either one of these will imitate him."

Origin of Names of Towns.

The origin of the names of some of the towns in Cape Colony and Natal which are at present so prominently attracting public attention are of interest. Durban is named from Sir Benjamin Durban, who was governor of the Cape in 1834. Grahamstown and Harrismith are named respectively from military commanders—Col. Graham and Col. Sir Harry Smith. Caledon, Beaufort, Somerset and Cradock are named from former governors—the Earl of Caledon, Lord C. Somerset and Sir J. Cradock (Lord Howden). The towns of Ladysmith, Port Elizabeth and Lady Grey are called after the wives of Cape governors. Kimberley is named after the Earl of Kimberley, who was colonial secretary from 1870 to 1874, when that town advanced from the position of a mushroom camp to that of a permanent mining center.

The Cruel Knife!

It is absolutely useless to expect a surgical operation to cure cancer, or any other blood disease. The cruelty of such treatment is illustrated in the alarming number of deaths which result from it. The disease is in the blood, and hence can not be cut out. Nine times out of ten the surgeon's knife only hastens death.

My son had a most malignant cancer, for which the doctors said an operation was the only hope. The operation was a severe one, as it was necessary to cut down to the jaw bone and scrape it. Before a great while the cancer returned, and he began to grow rapidly. We gave him many remedies without relief, and finally, upon the advice of a friend, decided to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific), and within the second bottle he began to improve. After twenty bottles had been taken, the cancer disappeared entirely, and he was cured. The cure was a permanent one, for he is now seventeen years old, and has never had a sign of the dreadful disease to return.

Low Down, Short Turn DELIVERY WAGON.

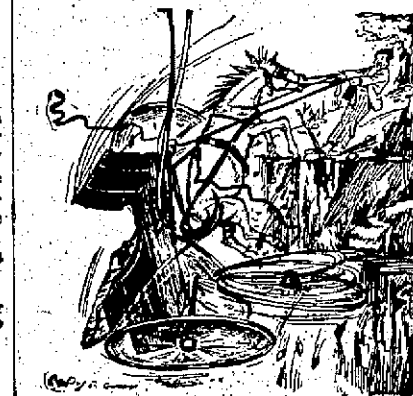

Wagons of this class that we sell are ahead of anything ever used in the city. They are up-to-date in every respect—in usefulness, beauty and durability.

One great point with these wagons is the square drop axle, letting the bottom of the box down to within twenty-one inches of the ground.

The short turn is another special feature, allowing one to turn around in an eleven foot alley.

The box is put up in many different styles for convenience as delivery wagons for milk, bakery goods, groceries, laundry, meat or any other business.

JOIN REPUBLICAN HOST

Jap R. Hinckley, owner of the Sparta Daily Herald-Advertiser, the Sparta Advertiser and the Tomah Herald announces that the papers, which have been democratic will in the future support President McKinley. Mr. Hinckley, in his announcement, says:

"It is but a short shift from the democratic to the republican fold, and why? Simply because the leaders of the former have adopted a vacillating, nondescript policy that holds to nothing, accomplishes nothing, and when in power amounts to nothing for the sturdy, old time supporters of the party when it was in its pristine power and strength. To prove this, one has only to revert to the period of its last administration, when with its full control, it made such egregious blunders as the Wilson tariff make shift bill, the bond issuing, and the docile policy to the administration in reference to Cuba. Ever resonant in platform pledges, only to pass into 'inocuous desuetude' when the victory had been won and the opportunity to test the correctness of the policies had presented itself to those in power. These things of themselves were enough to make the road easy, but when at the same time the republicans were going over the way trod by the modern democracy and were picking up 'lost opportunities' by such adaptations as Blaine's splendid reciprocity, the humane and patriotic aid of the Cubans, and, later, the placing of the United States squarely into the column of the world's nations by the Philippine policy, then, it was that one could find no difficulty in passing from the one to the other.

"Like many another democrat, we tarried yet a little, but when the populists who secured temporary control were made the permanent managers, and when Bryanism and a policy that had been overwhelmingly condemned at the polls were still thrust upon a suffering, a dismembered party, and when with unblinking effrontery leaders uttered such words and took such action as bordered upon treason, the ways parted and we no longer follow the party name, stolon by the new mongrel crowd of uncanny democrats and refugees from populism and all the other isms and dangerous tenets of this latter political age.

"Henceforth the Daily Herald Advertiser, the Sparta Advertiser, and the Tomah Herald will give support to the present administration in a party sense, as well as in a sense of a duty that every American citizen owes to the government under which he lives. How unswerving, and how just to the opposition, and how faithful to the interests of the republican party, we ask time to demonstrate in the future in the columns of our papers. Hence is a grasp of the head for showing a patriotic, united front as a nation to the other powers of the world, to putting down the insurrection in far away Philippines, or wherever else under the American flag it may raise its hydra-headed front, and such an adjustment for Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines as the future exigencies and conditions may warrant, so it be free and republican in form."

Janesville Recorder—Hon. A. P. Lovejoy is trying to figure out how one-fifth of a forty thousand dollar judgment is $85,000. The Jenkins estate got judgment for about $40,000 against Messrs. Bradley, Lovejoy and Kelly, one-fifth of which is Mr. Lovejoy's. The Gazette was probably figuring on the new tangled city expense, chemical engines, extra policemen, squirt guns, etc. Messrs. Bradley, Lovejoy and Kelly simply had the amount cut down where it belonged by the supreme court.

The interviews with tax payers published yesterday, undoubtedly show the drift of public sentiment in the matter of the police department. Twenty-one business men declared themselves in favor of a change, but not one defended the present system. The Gazette will continue to publish opinions as they are gathered in, and perhaps some one will be found before the list is complete, however, who likes the present system.

The importance of a full and correct census of Janesville should not be forgotten. The work will be begun next summer, and the people should make it a point to see that the enumerator get as complete a list as is possible of all the residents of the city.

The supreme court adjourned until Dec. 15 without passing upon the constitutionality of the general charter law, and the question of the legality of the street work done under its provisions is thus held in abeyance.

While Admiral Dewey has never claimed to be "the original McKinley man," he is, nevertheless, one of the strongest McKinley advocates in those United States.

The general opinion appears to be that the city of Janesville needs a better police system, and that she should have it as soon as possible.

The statement that "taxes are high in Janesville in comparison with other cities," is not well founded. Of this, more anon.

The Afton Advocate disapproves the establishment of a police force. "Tis well. Let the protest be registered.

The person who assumes the character of the "off ox" is generally well equipped for the part.

Brother-in-law McLean cuts no political ice with Admiral Dewey.

BIG BATTLE FOUGHT

opposing Gen. Methuen at Belmont were overwhelmed by numbers and forced to take a new position. The Boers had four guns, the British twenty-four.

SEEMS TO INDICATE A BATTLE. Gen. Methuen and Gen. Cronje are likely to meet in conflict.

London, Nov. 29.—[Special Cablegram]—The dearth of war news due to the breakdown of the east coast cable and the activity of the censor is most pronounced this morning. No newspaper specials have come through since Monday night.

Last night the war office received two dispatches from Cape Town of the same date, one of which was very important. It stated that the telegraph line was established Monday night as far north as Klokfontein, which is a small station on the railway line eight miles from Modder river and about thirty-two miles from Kimberley.

As the telegraph always follows and does not precede the army, Lord Methuen's force should by this time have reached the Modder River, and very possibly fought another big battle.

As confirming the supposition that Methuen is following the retreating Boers closely is the other Cape Town dispatch, giving news of an officer and a private of the Ninth Lancers who were wounded in a reconnaissance on Sunday, the day after the battle at Gras Pan.

Lord Methuen yesterday probably reached the Modder River without opposition. While it is not expected that the Boers will make a stand on this side of the river, they are sure to dispute his passage or make one last great stand at Spytfontein.

Kimberley reports that the Boers are marching to the south. It is not stated whether this dispatch was forwarded through General Methuen's advance, but everything points to the Boers making ready to give the British a warm reception in the vicinity of Modder River.

WILL STRIKE VIGOROUS BLOWS

Gen. Joubert and Cronje instructed to Unite Their Efforts.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—The Deutsche Zeitung publishes a dispatch dated Pretoria, Nov. 27, received through Boer diplomatic channels:

"President Kruger and President Steyn have instructed Gen. Joubert and Gen. Cronje not to split their forces into small detachments, but to strike vigorous blows. Gen. Joubert has three corps, one holding Ladysmith, the second commanding the Tugela and the third east of Estcourt, in order to cut off the British retreat. Gen. Cronje's forces are divided into three contingents, one at Kimberley, another at Modder river and the third in the rear of Gen. Methuen."

MR. TERWILLIGER'S FUNERAL

Many Friends Attend Services Which Were Held This Morning.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Charles Terwilliger, who committed suicide on Monday morning, was held from the family residence in the town of Bradford, this morning at 10 o'clock. The interment took place at Afton beside the body of his father. Many friends attended the funeral services and the floral offerings were many.

Amanda Wheeler.

Funeral services of the late Miss Amanda A. Wheeler were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house, 205 Fourth avenue. Rev. Arthur H. Barrington, rector of Christ church, officiated and the interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

WILL VOTE FOR BRYAN

Silver Republicans Agree At An Important Meeting Held In Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Informal discussion by members of the executive committee of the national silver republican committee and chairmen of state committees at the meeting held at the Auditorium Annex yesterday developed, as the consensus of purpose, adherence to the Bryan democracy. "If the right men are nominated," there was no dissent from the opinion that, as the presidential candidate, William J. Bryan would be "the right man."

Most of the afternoon was devoted to hearing reports of the condition of silver republicanism in the various states. Ex-Gov. Altgeld made a brief address, in which he paid a high tribute to the "patriotism and disinterestedness" of the silver republicans.

Chairman Charles Towne made an address, in which he inveighed against the "tendency of the McKinley administration toward absolutism." Senator Teller of Colorado said that the drift of the republican party was away from its original principles, and that, if he had not quit the party in 1896, he would have had ample cause to have done so since then. The verity of the principles of 1896, he said, would be emphasized by the gold-standard legislation which is in contemplation by the administration.

The committee meets to-day for the purpose of hearing reports and taking action preparatory to the calling of the national convention.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brand will attend the foot ball game in Chicago tomorrow.

MIRACLES IN JANESVILLE!

We give here a few testimonials from home which show some of the marvelous cures being wrought through the Magnetic Power of

PROF. I. EUGENE DENNIS

A well known lady of this city cured of the following:

Paralysis of the Bowels, Neuralgia of the Womb and Ovaries, an acute attack of Neuralgia of one Lung, and a Paralytic Shock.

I have suffered every inconvenience with Paralysis of the Bowels for fifteen years. For ten years, Neuralgia has at times caused me the most intense suffering. Last spring I was stricken with Paralysis of the left side and soon would have been helpless had it not been for the treatments which I received from Prof. Dennis. A few weeks ago I was taken with a severe pain in one lung which was so painful that I could scarcely breathe or move. In a short time I was enabled to get up and attend to my household duties, after being treated by Prof. Dennis. I consider that magnetic treatment has done for me what nothing else could.

MRS. E. WASGATT,
Janesville, Wis.

Emerald Grove, Wis.

For three years I have suffered with my eyes. There was a blur before them and at times terrible pains would come into them. I was entirely cured with two treatments from Prof. Dennis. My little finger, which has been numb, was also cured. I am very thankful for the help I have received and I recommend Prof. Dennis to any one suffering with any disease.

MISS MINNIE YOUNGS.

Here is What D. VanValen, No. 11 Milwaukee Ave., Says:

I have taken treatments of Prof. Dennis for Liver and Stomach Trouble and I am well pleased with the result.

Goitre Removed.

I have had a Goitre removed with only four short treatments. Since my partial recovery from congestion of the spine, I had been troubled with a dull, heavy ache in the back of my neck. This has been taken away through the help of Prof. Dennis.

MRS. L. SEXTON,
371 W. Milwaukee St.

Something Wonderful.

I have been afflicted with Catarrh for a great many years, causing me much trouble with my eyes and throat. I tried Magnetic Healing and found that the treatments given me by Prof. Dennis were the best thing I ever tried. I burned my wrist badly with steam. I tried Magnetic Healing for this and found that relief was soon obtained. I think this treatment is something wonderful.

MRS. DELLA SCOTT,
Emerald Grove, Wis.

MANY HAVE REASON FOR BEING THANKFUL

LOCAL RESIDENTS TELL WHY THEY CELEBRATE.

Turkey and Cranberry Sauce Will Help and Cheer the Unhappy, Tomorrow—List of Local Residents Who Believe in Airing Their Opinions Through Press—Pertinent Reasons

There are many in Janesville this year who have good reason to give thanks when they sit down to turkey and cranberry sauce tomorrow. Some have better reason than others. Many are in luck that they are alive and enjoying the best of health. Following are local business men who have good reason to be thankful:

S. B. Kenyon—Because the troubles of the Humane society are about to end.

Prof. D. D. Mayne—Because the High school has a wide reputation as a model institution.

W. W. Porter—Because there are others beside himself who believe in a good joke.

Sheriff W. H. Appleby—Because he will be the first Rock county sheriff to take possession of the new $25,000 bastille.

I. F. Wortendyke—Because the fishing season is not far away.

C. P. McLean—Because his business troubles are fewer with but one express company to handle.

A. F. Spooner—Because he is to be one of the "end men" at the coming home minstrel show. "And he'll be the real thing, too."

J. H. Nicholson—Because the Gideons are growing in membership.

Chief John W. Hogan—Because traps no longer make Janesville a stopping off place.

Edward Connell—Because Janesville foot-pads use their fists instead of billies.

James A. Fathers—Because the finances of the city were never more flourishing.

Peter L. Myers—Because the Modjeska performance netted him a neat sum.

John Thoroughgood—Because the Spring Brook furniture factory is having a hard time to fill its orders.

Frank Blodgett—Because his flouring mill is enjoying more business than any other mill in the state.

Rev. W. A. Goebel—Because over one-half of the necessary cash has already been raised for the proposed new St. Mary's church.

Edward Poeschen—Because he is the only man in Janesville who has a monopoly on his special line of business.

David Davies—Because the ostrich farm is profitable owing to the new tariff law.

George M. McKee—Because certain burglars did not use their revolvers.

Rev. A. C. Kempton—Because his series of sermons have been the means of reaching many people.

Archie Reid—Because he is soon to occupy one of the finest private residences in Janesville.

Judge C. L. Fifield—Because he was not detained in the northern pineries by the deputy game wardens.

W. H. Greenman—Because mushroom rooms have been plentiful in and about Janesville the past season.

J. C. Kline—Because the local Y. M. C. A. is on a paying basis.

J. F. Sweeney—Because he has the homeliest bull dog in Rock county.

Al Smith—Because the Murphy League is increasing in membership.

Hayes Brothers—Because they have one of the finest office buildings in the state.

Albert Schaller—Because he's the "champion golluffer," as Mr. Dooley might say.

Officer John Brown—Because Manager Myers is going to play "Brown's In Town"—the Browns' being very clannish.

Frank F. Pierson—Because the ice boating season is nearly here.

Peter J. Mount—Because no one believed that he wore wooden shoes.

City Attorney Burpee—Because the supreme court reversed one of the cases he has been fighting.

W. W. Hyzer—Because there is likely to be a mild winter.

Chief Hogan—Because he has taken great comfort in the fact that he has been wearing a uniform.

W. Frederick—Because everyone says he's a good street commissioner.

Nobby Coats

UNION SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING DAY

FIVE CHURCHES TO UNITE IN PRAYER AND THANKS.

Rev. Mr. Hall Will Preach Sermon at Congregational Church—Several Social Events Are Scheduled—Francis Murphy League Have an Excellent Program—At Myers Grand.

Thanksgiving will be celebrated tomorrow by local residents in many different ways. The majority of people of course will remain at home and partake of turkey about the festive board. But there are some who are going away. Chicago will attract many on account of the Wisconsin-Michigan football game. Several will also be absent attending outside parties. The day promises to be very quiet in Janesville. Business will be practically suspended and the postoffice and all public offices will be closed.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

The Union Thanksgiving services in Janesville will be held in the Congregational church this year and Rev. Walter A. Hall of Court Street M. E. church will preach the sermon. Up to last year each preacher of the church uniting preached in his own church. This hardly seemed like unity. This custom was broken last year and now there is to be a constant rotation of pastors and churches in such a manner that no pastor will preach in his own church. This is not only unity but has the appearance of it. The arrangement has met with the hearty approval of the people and the attendance this year as last will doubtless be larger because of it.

The Congregational chorus will sing. Mr. Leo Lange from the Institute for the Blind orchestra, will play the violin. He will be accompanied by Master Walter Getzinger of the orchestra on the piano.

The pastors of all the churches uniting will be present and will participate in that service. Mr. Hall says that he will speak on the great subject of praise. He thinks that American people especially now have great reasons for Thanksgiving.

The whole nation should make tomorrow not only a day of feasting and merry making, but a day of religious convocation in the churches and a day of devout thanksgiving to God.

The union service will begin at 11 o'clock sharp.

Football Game at Chicago

Many from this city will visit Chicago tomorrow to attend the Wisconsin-Michigan football game which will be played in the morning at 11 o'clock. It is expected that at least fifty rooters will make the trip.

Dance at Armory

A social event of prominence to local society is the party of the Mississippi Golf club which will be held at the armory tomorrow evening. Several visitors will be in attendance. Smith's full orchestra will preside.

At Myers Grand Opera House

A novel entertainment is scheduled at the Myers Grand tomorrow evening in the exhibition to be given by the Cinemascope Company.

At The Y. M. C. A.

Members of the Frances Murphy Temperance League will hold forth at the Y. M. C. A. building. An excellent program has been prepared and a large audience is assured. During the noon hour a Thanksgiving lunch will be served to strangers in the city. All are cordially welcome.

RESIDING ELDER WILL LEAD.

Service at Court Street M. E. Church This Evening.

Court Street prayer service will be held this evening instead of Thursday evening on account of the Murphy League entertainment tomorrow evening. Rev. W. W. Stevens, the presiding elder, will lead this meeting. The memory class will meet at 7 p. m. The prayer service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited and welcome.

BRODHEAD MEN DENY CHARGE

Say That They Never Were Arrested and Fined as Stated

Deputy Game Warden Fisher and Mr. Howard claim that they were not arrested and fined in Brodhead for the illegal taking of trees. The report was given The Gazette by a local business man who said he knew what he was talking about. Mr. Howard and Mr. Fisher are two highly esteemed citizens and The Gazette is pleased to make the necessary correction.

HAVE HANDSOME STORE

F. C. Cook & Co. Add Much to Interior Store Appearance.

With paint, paper and a considerable amount of taste F. C. Cook & Co. have changed the interior appearance of their store to an extent that is creating favorable comment among shoppers. The ceilings and walls have received a new lot of decorations that blend in color in a pleasing way and the fixtures have been retouched and made new and bright. The store in fact may be considered one of the handsomest in the city and with a twice larger stock than was ever purchased for holiday purposes it will be a favorite trading place. An exclusive optical room has been added to the rear of the store and will be as well arranged for the fitting of glasses as any in the country.

GAVE A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Members of the Marquette Club Made Merry Last Evening

At Columbia hall last evening members of the Marquette club gave a dancing party, there being fifty couple present. Smith's orchestra furnished the music. The floor committee consisted of Fred Schmitt, Harry Schmidley and Joseph Gsell.

VISITING TEACHERS

WILL BE PLENTIFUL

COMING FROM ALL PORTIONS OF BADGER STATE.

Scores of Letters Have Been Received in the City From All Parts of Wisconsin—Many Will Be Entertained at Private Homes—Hotels Will Be Well Patronized.

Judging from the score of letters that have been received in the city during the past two weeks, there promises to be a record breaking attendance at the Rock County Teachers' association. The session this year will open next Friday and close Saturday evening.

Teachers are coming from all parts of the Badger state. Many will be entertained at private homes. Others have engaged rooms and board at the local hotels.

The meeting will be held in the new Janesville high school on Dec. 1 and 2. E. Benjamin Andrews, superintendent of public schools in Chicago, and ex president of Brown university, will address the meeting on Dec. 1, talking for his subject, "False and True Criticism of School Work." On the morning of Dec. 2, President C. K. Adams of the Wisconsin university, will speak on "What Constitutes Good Teaching?"

Today one of the committee reported the securing of fifty names and the forming of a prohibition club in Janesville is assured.

Officers will be named next Tuesday evening and the necessary committees will then be appointed.

At the Court Street M. E. church last evening Oliver W. Stewart delivered a powerful address taking for his subject, "Cristian Citizenship."

ONE WAY TO STOP A WEDDING

Angry Parents Have Son's Promised Bride Arrested as a Vagrant.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—Miss Trace Nichols, who came here from Rockford, Ill., a few weeks ago, was arrested for vagrancy Tuesday morning, after a license had been issued for her to marry Fred Bornheimer.

Miss Nichols met Bornheimer shortly after her arrival here. He wooed her, and she promised to marry him. His family objected to the marriage, and when told the license was issued, his family had the girl arrested for vagrancy.

When arraigned in court she pleaded her prospective marriage as an evidence of her ability to support herself.

The case was continued until December 1, the day on which, according to law, she might marry Bornheimer. The prospective groom furnished the bail which gave his sweetheart liberty.

Later in the afternoon the couple were married by permission of Judge Johnson. Three hours later in the evening the police raided a house of ill fame on River street, and the bride was among the soiled doves gathered in. It was found that she had been an inmate of the house since her arrival in the city.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

WORRIED OVER BOER TACTICS

British Commanders Feel Their Way Very Carefully.

MAY RAISE KIMBERLEY SIEGE.

Gen. Cronje, with His Full Force, Believed to Be Marching Southward—Ninth Lancers Are Safe—Mothbourn's Heavy Losses at Enslin.

London, Nov. 29.—The following dispatch from Gen. Sir Frederick Forster-Walker, received by the war office, would seem to indicate that the Boers' siege of Kimberley was about to be raised:

"Cape Town, Nov. 28.—Col. Kekewich (the British commander at Kimberley) reports some unimportant skirmishes from Nov. 18 to Nov. 22. Two officers and three troopers were wounded. They are doing well. The garrison's health is good. Water is plentiful.

"Natives have informed Col. Kekewich that the enemy's camps southward of Kimberley have been vacated. Gen. Cronje, with 3,000 Boers, is moving to the southward. The enemy is disappearing from the neighborhood of Kimberley. He seems restless."

It may be, however, as some experts are inclined to believe, that a sufficiently strong force is to be left to shut up Kekewich, while all the men that can be spared are concentrating to the southward to meet Methuen and Gatacre with a stronger front.

Another dispatch from the same general, also dated Cape Town, Nov. 28, says:

"Gen. Gatacre occupied Bushman's Nek yesterday, with a battalion of infantry and some mounted infantry. The main body is at Putters Kraal. The enemy has retired in the direction of Molteno. Railway Kimberley line on Nov. 26 had reached mile 606. The telegraph line at Klokfontein, about eight miles south of the Modder river, last night."

The last part of the foregoing dispatch is very obscure, but it is interpreted as meaning that the railway is working to 606 miles from Cape Town, and that the telegraph is working to Klokfontein.

The estimated losses at Belmont, with the 195 casualties at the battle of Gras Pan, or, as it is officially called, Enslin, brings the total number of British killed, wounded and missing since the beginning of the war up to 2,945 of all ranks.

From the fact that Gen. Methuen opened the telegraph to Klokfontein on Sunday, it is assumed that he has since reached Modder river, and that he has possibly fought another action. It is also assumed in some quarters that he left the railway at mile 606, finding that after that point it was too badly damaged for him to repair it.

Gen. Cronje, the Boer commander, is reported to be moving to meet him, and this is probable enough, although the statement rests on native or Boer authority. The ubiquity of Gen. Cronje is decidedly puzzling. It is only explainable by the fact that the name is shared by at least two prominent commanders. The besieger of Kimberley, who is reported to be moving south from that place, must be Commandant Cronje of the Orange Free State, but whether it was he who accompanied the Boers at Enslin, as reported, cannot be said with certainty. The investor of Mafeking, who is also named Cronje, is doubtless a Transvaal commander.

The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, writing under date of Nov. 27, from Naauwpoort, says that a Dutchman living near the scene of the skirmish of Nov. 23 declares that a party of Boers dressed in khaki, while approaching their own position, were fired on by their comrades, who mistook them for British soldiers. Five or six of them were killed.

Death of Live News.

London, Nov. 29.—The censorship and a broken cable have reduced news from South Africa to a minimum, the brief official dispatches being practically the sole transmissions for many hours. The latest operations known to have taken place in Natal are those which occurred on Sunday. Buller's information concerning the safety of Ladysmith on Friday is naturally received with satisfaction, but his dispatch is tantalizingly meager.

Gen. Gatacre's movements are barely illuminated by the statement that he has occupied Bushman's Nek, but it is hardly supposed that he is yet in a position to take the offensive.

It is possible to follow Gen. Lord Methuen's advance in the direction of Kimberley, though much regarding his movements is guesswork.

Lancers Forced to Retreat.

Orange River, Nov. 29.—The Ninth lancers, who went in pursuit of the enemy after the battle of Gras Pan, reached the Boers, but a severe fire from one of the hills compelled them to retreat. More cavalry is badly needed. It was probably owing to the GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember the name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, is rich in digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 4¢ as much as coffee. The 50¢ per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

lack of cavalry that the enemy were enabled to save six guns. Gen. Cronje commanded the Boers. The prisoners, many of whom voluntarily surrendered, include Commandant Rissik and Alderman Jeppe. The New South Wales lancers intercepted the retreat of a party of Boers and killed several of them.

Proves Safety of the Ninth. London, Nov. 29.—The war office has received news that the Ninth lancers were out reconnoitering on Sunday. This proves that they returned to Gras Pan after the battle.

Gen. Lord Methuen's Gras Pan casualties were three officers wounded, ten men killed and seventy-two wounded and seven missing. This, of course, is in addition to the 105 killed and wounded as reported for the naval brigade.

Gen. Buller telegraphs from Pietermaritzburg under today's date as follows:

"Our last news from Ladysmith was dated Nov. 24, and reported all well. A message dated Nov. 19 has just been received from Gen. Jonbert. He has explained the firing on a flag of truce. Gen. White has accepted the explanation as satisfactory. The wounded are doing well, and the troops are healthy."

In the official list of casualties of the fight at Gras Pan the losses of the lancers are given as one killed and eight wounded. None are reported missing, and it is inferred from this that the remainder of the command has returned safely to camp.

Britain Watches Gibraltar.

Gibraltar, Nov. 29.—In the view of military and naval officers here there is no question that Great Britain is watching closely the conferences of continental diplomats, with a view to guarding the imperial interests in northern Africa and the Mediterranean. All manner of speculation is rife regarding the latest move of the admiralty, which has ordered the "particular-service fleet" to proceed at once to Gibraltar.

PAUNCEFOTE ENTERS PROTEST.

British Ambassador Feels Aid Is Being Sent to the Transvaal.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Great Britain has protested vigorously to this government against the organization of expeditions in this country intended presumably for the assistance of the Boers. Lord Pauncefote made the protest at the state department. After discussing the matter there for some time Secretary of State Hay referred Lord Pauncefote to the secretary of war, with whom the ambassador also had a conference.

It is no longer a secret that expeditions of importance are being organized. The most notable of these has its headquarters in the suburbs of this city, and another will be equipped with funds in New York city. Both of these organizations are said to have common backing, and are under the secret auspices of an agent of the Transvaal now in New York. It is understood that there are unlimited millions of Dutch and French money behind these filibustering expeditions. The state department, the war department and the treasury department have informed the British ambassador that every precaution will be taken to prevent the sailing of armed expeditions in the interest of the Transvaal.

To meet the emergency, which is believed by the British government to be grave, Great Britain will soon exercise her right of search, which she has since her declaration that a state of war exists between her and the Transvaal and the Orange Free State. This right will be exercised against the ships of all nations, and with especial scrutiny against vessels from American, French and Dutch ports in East African waters.

President Consults Wood.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Gen. Leonard Wood, the military governor of Santiago province, arrived here last night. He and Mrs. Wood called at the white house and remained about an hour. Gen. Wood is mentioned as civil governor of Cuba, and it is said the president has about made up his mind to appoint him as a reward for his excellent services during the war and in the Santiago province since then. Gen. Wood was summoned here to consult with the president, but declines to discuss his mission.

Italy to Assist Emigrants.

Rome, Nov. 29.—In consequence of the numerous failures of the so-called Italian "Bander" in America involving enormous losses to the Italian immigrants, the foreign minister, Sig. Venosta, has introduced a bill authorizing the Bank of Naples to use 2,000,000 lire of state funds and to assume the service of transmission to Italy of money sent for immigrants and establishing branches in the principal cities.

Increase in Internal Revenue.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Commissioner George W. Wilson of the internal revenue bureau, in his report to the secretary of the treasury of the operations of his office for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1899, shows that the receipts from all sources aggregated $273,484,573, an increase over the preceding year of $102,617,000, and an increase of $3,484,573 over the estimate of the commissioner made one year ago.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE IN CUBA.

No Doubt of the Feeling of Unrest on the Island.

RAISING EMERGENCY FUND.

Money Being Subscribed That May Be Used in Opposition to the United States—General Willingness to Await Congressional Action.

Havana, Nov. 29.—Although there has been a great deal of exaggeration with reference to risings in different parts of the island, there is no doubt that despite the tranquillity of the country apprehension exists lest within the next few months some trouble should occur in the event that the United States congress does not give definite assurances respecting the future of Cuba. The best opinion, official and non-official, rejects the idea, however, that there will be any trouble before the beginning of next year. The papers published in English deny that there is any ground for alarm, and the Spanish papers, alluding to the alarmist rumors, declare that most of these are put in circulation by those who resent the notion of the appointment of a civilian governor-general.

It is asserted that many of the police, especially members of the rural guard, have for several weeks been paying a fraction of their salaries to a fund intended for use in case of an outbreak against the United States. This information has been brought to headquarters by persons who have usually proved reliable. It has also been reported that "recruiting for future emergencies" is in progress in various parts of the island.

With a few exceptions, the prominent Americans, Spaniards and Cubans refuse to talk on the subject for publication. Gen. Collazo, a veteran of the Cuban army, and now editor of the Cubano, who fairly represents the views of the Cuban revolutionary leaders, said:

"Judging from personal letters I have received from Pinar del Rio and recent interviews I have had with prominent revolutionary leaders from that part of the country, I feel justified in saying that at present Cuba is perfectly tranquil, although, as the result of Gen. Ludlow's recent statements and of the possibility of a civilian governor-general, a feeling of tension exists."

"Our people are waiting for a declaration by the United States congress. No one would be so foolish as to prejudice the whole case by starting a rebellion before we have heard what congress will do. Cubans regard the present issues as almost vital."

Gen. Collazo asks that the statement be made in his name that there is no intention on the part of the Cubans to take to the woods. There is, however, a movement on foot in Havana, to found a monthly subscription list to defray the expenses of four or five Cubans, who would travel through the United States and urge the granting of absolute independence.

At a largely attended mass-meeting in Rodas, province of Santa Clara, the mayor was requested to inform the military government that the people of the district did not desire a civilian governor.

Mrs. Barnard Thanks MRS. PINKHAM FOR HEALTH.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 15,992]

"DEAR FRIEND—I feel it my duty to express my gratitude and thanks to you for what your medicine has done for me. I was very miserable and losing flesh very fast, had bladder trouble, fluttering pains about the heart and would get so dizzy and suffered with painful menstruation. I was reading in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I wrote to you and after taking two bottles I felt like a new person. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I cannot praise it enough."—MRS. J. O. BARNARD, MILLTOWN, WASHINGTON CO., ME.

An Iowa Woman's Convincing Statement.

"I tried three doctors, and the last one said nothing but an operation would help me. My trouble was profuse flowing; sometimes I would think I would flow to death. I was so weak that the least work would tire me. Reading of so many being cured by your medicine, I made up my mind to write to you for advice, and I am so glad that I did. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and followed your directions, and am now well and strong. I shall recommend your medicine to all, or it saved my life."—Miss A. P., Box 21 Abbott, Iowa.
